

Montlery October 2003

La Passion is certainly the right description for Les Amis de Gerard Jumeaux, held in October at the circuit Linas-Montlery. Now a circuit regular Malc Wheeler went along to add his own tribute to Gerard Jumeaux.

Proving he's game for a laugh, Dave Hailwood joined the Kawasaki triple nutters in their high speed fun and games.

Age is no barrier to enjoying a race bike, with my personal dice of the weekend coming from the much younger Frank Chalokhine and his rapid, and very well ridden Velocette.

Hardworking organiser Anne-Marie (right), has a serious moment in two days of smiles, every moment of which proved a fitting tribute to her late husband.
